

The Hand Hotel, Llangollen – A Charming Riverside Hotel Joins the Compass Hospitality Group Portfolio

Compass Hospitality Group is pleased to announce the addition of The Hand Hotel, nestled along the picturesque River Dee on Bridge Street in the historic town of Llangollen, North Wales, to its growing portfolio of UK properties. Rich in local charm and set amidst the scenic beauty of the Dee Valley, The Hand Hotel offers guests a warm and welcoming base from which to explore one of Wales's most beloved regions.

With 58 comfortable en suite bedrooms, The Hand Hotel blends traditional character with practical amenities to ensure a relaxed and enjoyable stay. Many rooms offer views of the river or surrounding hills, making the most of the hotel's unique setting at the heart of Llangollen.

The hotel features a casual restaurant serving hearty, classic dishes that reflect the best of British comfort food, as well as a bar and lounge area ideal for unwinding after a day of exploring the town's attractions or nearby countryside. A spacious riverside terrace provides a peaceful spot for guests to relax and soak in the natural beauty.

Llangollen itself is a destination of both cultural and outdoor appeal, known for its canal walks, historic railway, and the renowned International Eisteddfod music festival. From heritage sites like Castell Dinas Brân to adventurous pursuits in the nearby hills, The Hand Hotel serves as a convenient gateway for travellers seeking an authentic Welsh experience.

Harmil Singh, CEO and President of Compass Hospitality, shared his enthusiasm for this new addition, stating, "We are delighted to welcome The Hand Hotel into the Compass Hospitality family. Its heritage charm, central location in Llangollen, and riverside setting make it a valuable addition to our expanding presence in the UK. This acquisition supports our strategy to offer guests quality stays in unique local settings, and we look forward to building on the hotel's strong reputation within the community."
